A. Mission Description and Budget Item Justification The Defense Military Deception Program (DMDP) is an effort to revitalize DoD Military Deception (MILDEC) capability and capacity across the Department of Defense. DMDP executes research, development, test, and evaluation (RDT&E) on MILDEC capabilities, next generation devices, and technologies to support emerging Department requirements. DMDP integrates RDT&E prototypes with DoD Component Programs for acquisition, sustainment and maintenance.

F. Performance Metrics
RDT&E Performance metrics are among the metrics used to establish the baseline and assess progress toward revitalization of MILDEC capabilities and capacities across the Department of Defense's assigned responsibilities. The following metrics are focused on the ROI of RDT&E activities and provide assessment to meeting: 1) operational requirements for MILDEC capabilities, 2) technical requirements for successful engineering, and 3) programmatic requirements for sustaining RDT&E successes across the Department: Performance metrics are measured through an increase of MILDEC capability and capacity as demonstrated by the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Seventy percent of evaluations and tests on engineered prototypes and next generation capabilities address Combatant Command and/or DoD Component requirements. The remaining thirty percent serve as the pivot to improve service level operational capabilities or to address alternate technologies.- One hundred percent of completed prototype development includes affiliated specifications, architecture, raw material inventories and documentation. They are maintained in a centralized database repository used to support feedback and future efforts.- Fifty percent of prototypes and next generation capabilities transition into DoD Component Program Management Offices and Program Executive Offices to fulfill DOD urgent needs, while the remaining fifty percent are reviewed for alternative operational utility and sent to the appropriate Service or Agency for application.
