Al-Qaida In Iraq Notes Problems it Faces

“...Here in Iraq, time is now beginning to be of service to the American forces and harmful to the resistance...by allowing the American forces to form the forces of the national guards, to reinforce them and enable them to undertake military operations against the resistance.”

Suicide Vehicle-Borne Attack on 1/6-2 National Police

June 17, 2006

Summary

- 1/6-2 Iraqi National Police inspected westbound vehicles for VBIEDs on a main E. Baghdad
- NP were suspicious of a Black Daewoo Prince approaching from passing lane. Last resort, driver detonated the device as inspection started
- Five NP soldiers injured and evacuated to Al Adnan Hospital
- Three NP soldiers treated and released, other two held in stable condition
- Hospital staffed cheered heroism of their NP
- 6/2 NP CF Special Police Transition Team later arrived on scene to provide first aid to some of the NP soldiers with minor wounds from the blast.
- Investigation ongoing.

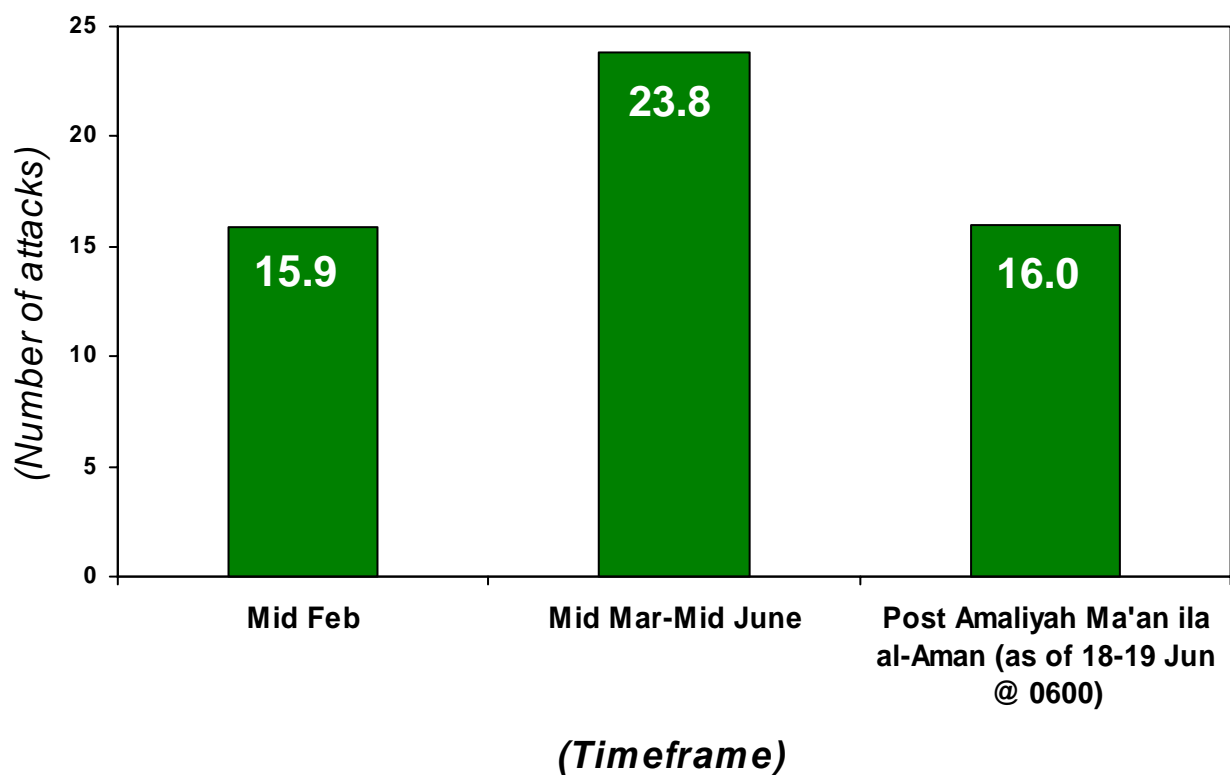

Assessment

In an ongoing effort to prevent anti-Iraqi forces freedom of movement, the NP, IP, and LNs continue to be a threat and targets of AIF.
