

Warplanes strike Iraqi targets

Ten U.S. warplanes from the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk in the Persian Gulf struck targets in Iraq's southern "no-fly" zone Wednesday in advance of an expected full-scale war.

Initial strikes Other likely targets

- Missle sites
- Nuclear sites
- Biological sites
- Airfields
- Chemical sites

Sources: Associated Press, GlobalSecurity.org, United Nations, NIMA, Al-Arabiya TV, Iraqi News Agency
Researched by Times graphics reporter BRADY MACDONALD