Egypt, and others. The migrants paid money, often tens of thousands of dollars, to be transported through various countries such as Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, and Guatemala.

- 3. The migrants smuggled by the defendants are not United States citizens and have no official authorization from the United States government to come to, enter, or reside in the United States.
- 4. Defendant ABDUL KARIM CONTEH coordinated with individuals throughout Mexico and other countries to facilitate the transport of migrants into and through Mexico to the United States border. Once near the Mexico-United States border, Defendant ABDUL KARIM CONTEH oversaw and assisted with their surreptitious and unlawful entry into the United States by various means, including the use of ladders and tunnels.
- 5. Defendants VERONICA ROBLERO PIVARAL, assisted with transporting migrants through Mexico to the United States border and then facilitated their unlawful entry into the United States.

- assisted with the receipt and passage of identity documents that would be used by smuggled migrants to unlawfully remain in the United States, as well as facilitate payments to others in the operation through mobile applications.
