Strategic Communication

- CPA conducted a short ‘civics test’ in Feb poll in 7 cities
- Results indicate that Iraqis in general are not well-informed on transition political issues
- USAID is funding independent Iraqi filmmaker, Evini Films, to produce public service messages and documentaries to inform Iraqis on benefits and challenges of democracy in anticipation of June transition
- On 26 Feb, CPA Iraqi Women in Local Government Program and Iraq Foundation for Development and Democracy co-sponsored conference on role of women in new Iraq, focusing on
  – Representation of women in National Transitional Assembly and in government positions
  – Women’s legal rights, including a focus on current laws and how they affect women, and Islamic law
- On 26 Feb, Basra Governor convened his first 150-participant conference on federalism & decentralization

- 23 – 29 Feb Poll Findings:
  - Fewer than half (42%) of survey respondents understand purpose of TAL or who writes / approves it
  - Approx. half as many respondents understood that a constitution is a nation’s fundamental law
  - Approx. one-third of respondents correctly identify federalism with election of local officials, and views diverge widely on concerns about federalism
