Highlights

1. Defeat the Terrorists and Neutralize the Insurgents
   According to Iraqi government figures released April 1, the average daily death toll in Iraq for March was less than 4% more than in February, despite the military crackdown in Baghdad.

2. Transition Iraq to Security Self-Reliance
   Speaking to reporters in Baghdad March 26, former U.S. Ambassador to Iraq Zalmay Khalilzad said that he was optimistic about Iraq’s future, in part due to the early success of Operation Imposing the Law (Fardh al-Qanun) and the improved performance of Iraqi soldiers and police, among other factors.

3. Help Iraqis to Forge a National Compact for Democratic Government
   Iraq's Sunni Deputy Prime Minister, Salam al-Zubaie, was discharged April 3 from a hospital in Jordan where he was treated after an assassination attempt last month by a group linked to al-Qaida, the Iraqi ambassador to Jordan said.

4. Help Iraq Build Government Capacity and Provide Essential Services
   The installation of three US Army-funded 11kV underground distributors from the Shaykh Omar & Oil Complex in Rusafa, Baghdad province has been completed, supporting the direct distribution of electricity to 50,000 local residents.
5. Help Iraq Strengthen Its Economy
The World Bank’s Board of Executive Directors approved a $124 million project to restore the base load generating capacity of Units 2 and 3 of the Hartha Power station to 400 MW. The project will help lay the groundwork for improved power system planning by building the capacity of the Ministry of Electricity to prepare, implement, and operate current and future projects.

6. Help Iraq Strengthen the Rule of Law
On April 2, prosecutors sought the death penalty for Ali Hassan al-Majid, Saddam Hussein’s cousin and infamously known as “Chemical Ali,” for his use of poison gas against Iraqi Kurds in the 1980’s.

7. International Support for Iraq
The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) stated that he plans to strengthen the international presence in Baghdad of the UNHCR, increase its activities in the country, and has urged the Iraqi government to “lead” a world effort to lessen the “humanitarian crisis” in the country.

8. Strengthen Public Understanding of Coalition Efforts and Public Isolation of the Insurgents
In a statement delivered March 30, Muqtada al-Sadr said the invasion of Iraq had burdened the country with violence and poverty. Sadr also urged Iraqis to protest in Najaf April 9 to mark the four year anniversary of when American troops entered Baghdad in 2003.
[1.] Defeat the Terrorists and Neutralize the Insurgency

Iraq Death Toll Up Despite Crackdown:

- According to Iraqi government figures released April 1, the average daily death toll in Iraq for March was less than 4% more than in February, despite the military crackdown in Baghdad.

Insurgent Tied to Extremist Groups Captured:

- Iraqi and Coalition Forces (CF) captured a suspected insurgent tied to Explosively-Formed Projectile (EFP) facilitation networks during a joint operation March 30 while targeting anti-Iraqi forces in Sadr City. The suspect is allegedly involved with several violent extremist groups responsible for attacks against the Iraqi people and CF, as well as facilitating the movement of EFPs into Iraq.

Ambassador Khalilzad Optimistic About Iraq’s Future:

- Speaking to reporters in Baghdad March 26, former U.S. Ambassador to Iraq Zalmay Khalilzad said that he was optimistic about Iraq’s future, in part due to the early success of Operation Imposing the Law (Fardh al-Qanun) and the improved performance of Iraqi soldiers and police, among other factors.

- The Iraqi Security Forces (ISF) “are performing better and they are doing better in terms of carrying their share of the burden,” Ambassador Khalilzad said. He also pointed out that Iraqis seem to appreciate the presence of their soldiers and police on the streets to help effect stability, noting that citizen-provided tips about insurgent activity have been flowing in steadily.

House Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee Listens to Panelists:

• At its first open hearing March 28, the House Oversight and Investigations subcommittee listened to outside perspectives on the transition of responsibility for security to ISF. Though differing in areas of emphasis, all four panelists insisted that ISF will in no way be prepared to assume primary security responsibility by January 2008.

Developments

Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister Zubaie Released from Hospital after Attack:

- Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister Salam al-Zubaie was discharged April 3 from a hospital in Jordan where he was treated after an assassination attempt last month by a group linked to al-Qaida, the Iraqi ambassador to Jordan said.

- Zubaie told Dubai-based al-Arabiya television April 3 that his attackers seek to keep Iraq in a “whirlpool of violence,” but that Baghdad's leadership will “confront these dirty terrorism groups that want chaos and sedition to spread among Iraqis.”

General McCaffrey Reports Growing Sunni Opposition to AQI:

- A report by retired General Barry McCaffrey claims there is growing Sunni tribal opposition to al-Qaida in Iraq (AQI) and unmistakable evidence that the western Sunni tribes are increasingly convinced that they blundered badly by sitting out the January 2005 elections. He also says there is now active combat between Sunni tribal leadership and AQI terrorists, as well as evidence that the Sunni tribes are now supplying their young men as drafts for the Iraqi police.

Central Bank’s US Dollar (USD) Currency Auction:

- The following table shows volume sold of and exchange rates for USD in the Iraqi currency auction since April. Since September, the Central Bank has slowly appreciated the dinar, as suggested by the IMF, in an effort to rein in galloping inflation. There are early signs that this effort may have begun to bear fruit, with prices falling 6.8% between January and February.
Help Iraq Strengthen Its Economy – Securities Markets

Trading of Iraqi Bonds on the International Secondary Bond Market:

- The following table shows the daily bond resale price and yield on Iraqi bonds issued January 20. The bonds were originally issued to approximately two-thirds of Iraq’s commercial creditors as part of a debt exchange arrangement as per Paris Club terms. Iraq’s commercial debt was approximately $22 billion before the debt-swap arrangement. The bonds, which are not yet rated, will mature in 2028. The bonds’ current yield of 9.6 percent remains one of the highest in the world for sovereign debt instruments.

- The World Bank’s Board of Executive Directors approved a $124 million project to restore the base load generating capacity of Units 2 and 3 of the Hartha Power station to 400 MW. To date, national electricity supply for 2007 is only one percent below 2006. Because demand is increasing, however, the relative decline in national hours of power is much larger: an average of 8.9 hours for January 1-March 14, 2007, compared with an average of 10.5 hours for the same period in 2006.
